

WINEENTHUSIAST 94pts
Wine Spectator 90pts

2010 EPISODE

The pinnacle wine for Terlato Vineyards, EPISODE stands shoulder to shoulder with the very best Bordeaux Blends in the world. The Terlato family makes this boutique Bordeaux blend of classic varietals from the best Napa Valley fruit. The 2010 vintage stands out as one of Napa Valley's top vintages. A late bud break and cool summer allowed for a long, slow ripening, which offers a beautiful balance of acidity, ripeness and complexity.

Appellation:	Napa Valley
Varietals:	44% Merlot, 38% Cabernet Sauvignon, 9% Cabernet Franc, 9% Petite Verdot
Color:	Deep Garnet
Aroma:	Intense aromas of boysenberry, blueberry and assis with a hint of vanilla, nutmeg and caramel.
Taste:	Beautiful flavor intensity, with rich layers of black fruits and dark chocolate. This wine is mouth filling and robust, with silky tannins further enhancing the wine's complex expression. Great structure and depth.
Fermentation:	Fermented in stainless steel tanks, with daily pumpovers; left on skins for 4 weeks before draining and pressing.
Aging:	21 months cave aged in 100% new French oak barrels, 14 months aging in bottle prior to release.
Alcohol:	14.4%
Harvest Date:	October 2010	Acid: 6.3 g/L
Bottled date:	August 2012	Residual Sugar: none
Production:	365 cases

Features

- The pinnacle wine from Terlato Family Vineyards uses only the highest quality fruit each vintage.
- 90+ scores from top publications; "Terlato has mastered the art of crafting Bordeaux-style red wines that scream Napa Valley" Steve Heimoff, Wine Enthusiast
- Boutique production and allocated for top wine shops and restaurants.

Benefits

- Appeals to collectors who want the very best.
- Validations from top publications offers a reason to discover.
- Opportunity for wine enthusiast to experience top quality wines that are truly limited.

UPC: 086891-07677-5
SCC: 10086891-07677-2
Case: 6pk

Competitive Set

- Opus One
- Quintessa
- Insignia

