

2012 EPISODE

The pinnacle wine for Terlato Vineyards, EPISODE stands shoulder-to-shoulder with the very best Bordeaux blends in the world. The Terlato family makes this boutique Bordeaux blend of classic varietals from the best Napa Valley fruit. The 2010 vintage stands out as one of Napa Valley's top vintages. A late bud break and cool summer allowed for a long, slow ripening season and beautiful balance of acidity, ripeness and complexity.

Appellation:	100% Napa Valley
Varietals:	51% Cabernet Sauvignon, 39% Merlot, 10% Cabernet Franc
Color:	Deep Ruby
Aroma:	Aromas of boysenberry, cassis, plum with a hint of vanilla, nutmeg.
Taste:	Flavors of dark fruit with cocoa accents. This wine is mouth-filling and robust with seamless, silky tannins with a long finish.
Fermentation:	Fermented in stainless steel tanks, with daily pumpovers.
Aging:	21 months cave aged in 100% new French oak barrels, 14 months aging in bottle prior to release.
Alcohol:	14.4%
Harvest Date:	October 2012	Acid:	6.2 g/L
Bottled date:	August 2014	Residual Sugar:	none
Production:	1,200 cases

Features

- Ever-changing Bordeaux style blend is the pinnacle wine from Terlato Family Vineyards.
- Substantial investment goes into every bottle from the very best fruit to cave aging in 100% New French oak barrels to the distinctive, high end bottle that is hand etched in France and packed in wood boxes.
- Only ~1.5 acres of the best fruit goes into the truly Boutique production (~20 barrels).

Benefits

- Appeals to collectors who want the very best.
- A value that over delivers when compared to Napa or Bordeaux blends of the same quality.
- Opportunity for wine enthusiast to experience top quality Nap Valley wines that are truly limited production.

UPC: 086891-07677-5
SCC: 10086891-07677-2
Case: 6pk

Competitive Set

- Opus One
- Quintessa
- Insignia