

GRACE LANE

2011 Riesling

Sourced from Yakima Valley, our Riesling grapes are exposed to long, sunny days and brisk, cool evenings. This extreme fluctuation in temperature results in bold, world-class vines that yield highly regarded wines. Grace Lane Riesling is crisp and balanced, showing bright aromas of green apple and white peach. Its delicate yet complex flavors are spicy, fruity and fresh with a long and rounded finish.

Appellation:	Yakima Valley, Washington
Varietals:	100% Riesling
Color:	Light straw yellow
Aroma:	Bright aromas of green apple and white peach.
Taste:	Its delicate yet complex flavors are spicy, fruity and fresh with a long and rounded finish.

Features & Benefits:

- The Yakima appellation is the oldest, most established wine growing region in Washington state
- Long, sunny days are balanced by brisk, cool evenings in the Yakima Valley, resulting in bold, world-class wines
- Riesling is a highly terroir-expressive grape varietal, which makes Grace Lane not only distinct from German producers but even other Washington state producers

Competitive Set

- Pacific Rim
- Columbia Crest
- Two Vines

UPC: 086891-08156-4
SCC: 1 00 86891-08156-1
Case: 12pk

