

GRACE LANE

2012 Riesling

Grace Lane is nestled amongst the beautiful, rolling hills of Washington state wine country. Located in the Yakima Valley, our Riesling grapes are exposed to long, sunny days and brisk, cool evenings. This extreme fluctuation in temperature results in bold, world-class vines that yield highly regarded wines. Grace Lane's Riesling is a crisp, balanced offering that pairs especially well with spicy chicken entrees, asparagus and artichokes.

Appellation: Yakima Valley, Washington

Varietals: 100% Riesling

Color: Light straw yellow

Aroma: Bright aromas of green apple and white peach.

Taste: Its delicate yet complex flavors are spicy, fruity and fresh with a long and rounded finish.

Features & Benefits:

- The Yakima appellation is the oldest, most established wine growing region in Washington state
- Long, sunny days are balanced by brisk, cool evenings in the Yakima Valley, resulting in bold, world-class wines
- Riesling is a highly terroir-expressive grape varietal, which makes Grace Lane not only distinct from German producers but even other Washington state producers
